

Exciting News: Welcome Dr. Emily Robbins to Our AllerVie Health team!

We are thrilled to announce that Emily Robbins, DO, will be joining our practice as our newest provider in Allergy & Immunology!

Dr. Robbins will be practicing at our Naperville and Downers Grove office and brings over extensive experience in allergic conditions, asthma, food allergies, eczema, and immune-related disorders. With a background in pediatrics from Staten Island University Hospital and extensive experience in patient care, education, and research, Emily brings a multidisciplinary, empathetic approach to medicine.

Dr. Emily Robbins combines her research in the NIH's Clinical Microbiome Unit with a strong clinical and educational background to deliver personalized, science-based care. Her unique training in osteopathic medicine and religious studies helps her build meaningful connections with patients. She is known for her compassionate communication, innovative thinking, and commitment to empowering families with knowledge. With experience in both clinical and research settings, Dr. Robbins offers a well-rounded, patient-centered approach to care.

Emily Robbins, DO is available to see patients starting in August 2025 and is eager to help patients live in freedom from their allergy and asthma symptoms. If you would like to book an appointment or have any questions about these changes, please feel free to call our offices directly at 630.852.4050 and 630.987.4797.

As part of the national AllerVie Health network, we remain committed to providing high-quality allergy and asthma care and continuing to serve the AllerVie Health – Naperville and Downers Grove community. We are confident that Emily's compassionate approach and dedication to individualized patient care make her a wonderful addition to our team.

We look forward to continuing serving you!

Sincerely,

AllerVie Health
